RELIGION

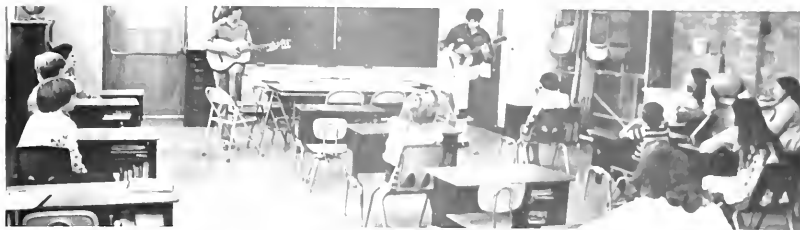

Oct. 13 started our Fall week of prayer. Pastor Jim Pleasants, who came to our campus from Detroit, brought us not only spiritual but physical activities involving the students and faculty in two different football games. Jim, as he preferred us to call him, brought us a week of interesting and beneficial talks.

A new project initiated this year by the Academy was the presentation of Week of Prayer at surrounding grade schools. Groups of students went to the schools attempting to show the boys and girls how Christ fits into every aspect of life.

One advantage of a day school is that talents developed can be put to use in the local churches. Pictured here are some students who help out regularly in their Sabbath Schools.

Youthfest! The mere utterance of this word brings to mind enjoyable evenings spent in community homes. These meetings are usually aimed at helping young people with their problems and are liked by all who attend.

Another first this year at G.L.A. was the Bible Bowl. Four teams (one from each class) of four members each competed during three chapels to find out who really knew their Bibles best. In the first game the Freshman proved no match for the mighty Sophomores losing by a hefty margin. Second game the Seniors beat the Juniors fairly easily but not without a struggle. The final playoff game was a close one with the Seniors almost winning but the Sophomores emerged victorious.

Through no smoking clinics, putting on temperance plays, and how to stop smoking booths in the mall, the temperance society has kept busy. Most of the students have participated in the AYBL activities. Although G.L.A. is the smallest Academy in the Lake Union it has accumulated the most points for temperance work in the last two years.

Least heard of but one of the most exciting clubs is the Cycle Club.

FACULTY

Eldar Alonzo Mahr-is the manager of the Grand Ledge Academy Craft-shop and is usually very busy with mill orders and phone calls. He is often seen with a smile on his face and working with students.

Another new teacher, Mr. Clow is often seen carrying his camera for one purpose or another whether it be for the yearbook (of which he is the sponsor), for photography class (which he teaches), or personal reasons he very much enjoys this hobby. In addition to photography he also teaches Bible I & III and is in charge of our library.

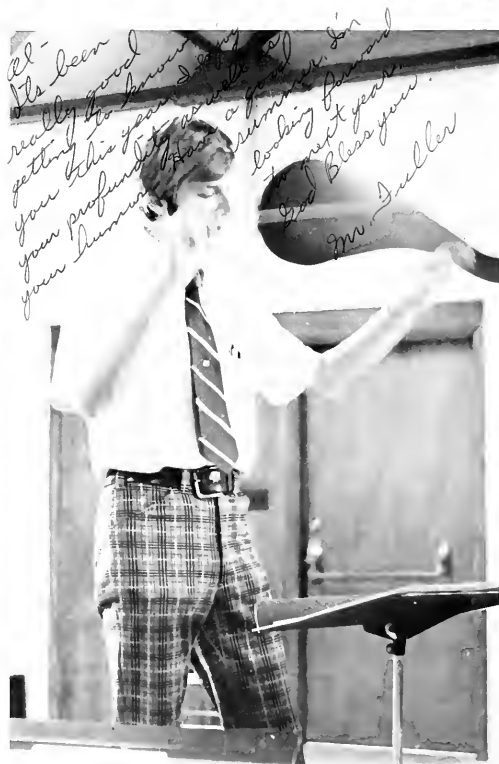

As principal of G. L. A. Mr. Brooks has placed a great emphasis on the school's spiritual life. He is often seen at prayer meeting and takes an active interest in the students' personal needs.

A former student, Mr. Black is now one of our teachers of 3 years. He teaches Science Classes, Geometry, Mechanical Drawing and Auto Mechanics. He also plays the tuba in our band.

Mr. David Fuller was born and raised in Lincoln, Nebraska where he majored in Music Ed. at Union College. He has taught two years at a ten grade S.D.A. school in Eugene, Oregon and now manages the instrumental part of the music department for the first year here at G.L.A.

From dry Arizona to snowy Grand Ledge Michigan. Mrs. Grant came to teach the business classes. She is also our paper staff sponsor.

Mr. Beckwith is our math and history teacher, work study coordinator, and vice-principal. He has been with us for four years. Often he is mistaken for a student because of his size, but good things come in small packages.

Mr. Emery is our English and journalism teacher. He also sponsors our tumbling team, and is very active in the academy religious activities.

For seven years Mr. Sotala has patiently directed the choir. Through his expert instruction many young people have learned to praise God through their voices.

Mr. Chalker, a native of Wyoming, has been instructing Bible for four years. Seniors especially appreciate his help as the guidance counselor. He also acquired the job of registrar this year.

It is great to once again have a full time P.E. teacher. Mr. Magers is a graduate of Andrews University. His greatest enjoyment as a teacher is a good floor-hockey game.

A concert pianist, Mrs. Hamrick serves as secretary to the Principal and teaches home economics.

When the drains are clogged and the doors are busted (like the library door), it is Mr. Parks to the rescue.

Our groundskeeper is Mr. Stout. To the disappointment of students and faculty alike he keeps our sidewalks and roads cleared of snow.

Printing is taught by Mr. Nelson and he is also the head mechanic at the craftshop.

As head of the Business Office Mrs. Culbert is often found sitting at her desk working on student financial accounts. In spite of these responsibilities she is always willing to tend to the needs of students who need help.

For many years Mrs. Link has been head of the cafeteria here at G. L. A.. Besides being in charge of our lunch program she also prepares all the food for banquets and other similar activities of the school.

SPORTS

The Champs: Standing; Dan Hamstra, Rich Greeley, Captain; Jim Harebottle, Dave Houseman, Tom Harebottle, Wendell Link. Not pictured Mr. Emery and Mr. Blackerby.

Alumni of the year awards were given to JoEllen Mortenzon and Rick and Mary Holtz. These people were chosen by the Alumni officers. Rick and Mary also received the award for traveling the farthest for the weekend.

Above: Elder Lowell Bock, Lake Union Conference President.

This is the very first year that G. L. A. has given out awards for honorary Alumni of the Year. The following people, because of their support at the school, received this award.

Elder Duwane Miller, former district pastor and board chairman, received the award for his constant support and help. When the G. L. A. girls dorm burned in 1967 he kept the school on its feet when closing seemed inevitable.

Elder Alonzo Mohr, manager of the Grand Ledge craftshop, is a long time backer of G. L. A. The students appreciate the chance he gives them to work and pay their way through school.

For years the Links have given strong support to G. L. A. They have not only kept us fed but have sent four of their children here and have stood true to G. L. A. in some of its shakier years. Known for many years as Aunt Bea and Uncle Russ.

The Parks have been here ever since the doors of G. L. A. opened. Through their hard work and willingness another graduating class will be able to walk into the world with an understanding of what God can do.

On December 13, The Heritage II presented a sacred concert before one of the largest audiences assembled for any lyceum event here at Grand Lodge.

FRIENDS WITH YOU

What a friend we have in time,
Gives us children makes us wise,
Tells us what to take or leave behind,
And the gifts of growing old are the stories to be told of the secrets more precious than gold.

Baby's days are never long,
Mothers laugh is baby's song,
Gives us all the strength to carry on.

Friends I will remember you,
Think of you, pray for you.
And when another day is through
I'll still be friends with you.
